Sir or Madam:

I filed a PPA application (Serial Number 60/251,109) for my invention on Dec. 4, 2000. I followed up by filing my official patent application through US Postal Service Express Mail (Tracking number ET854087863US) on Nov. 8, 2001. I have tracked the delivery of my application. However, instead of getting the delivery confirmation for the postal services, I received an explanation (see attached copy of fax sent by a local post office) that my application may be among those mails that are suspended in Washington DC.

I send this letter to make sure your office knows that I complied with the rule of one-year limitation between PPA filing date and the official filing date.

Attached please find a copy of the Express Mail receipt with date (11/08/2001), tracking number (ET854087863US), and the address sending to (Box Patent Applications, Commissioner for Patents, Washington, DC 20231) for your verification.

Also attached are copies of payment check, patent application transmittal letter, fee transmittal, declaration for utility or design patent application, small entity declaration, information disclosure statement, and list of prior art cited by applicant (Form PTO-1449) for your reference.

Please send back the self-addressed post card.

I can be reached via

Phone/Fax	636-391-8924
